Thank you to all who supported LCMNU in 2018!

Dear friends,

LCMNU has extended an invitation to over 250 students since the beginning of this academic year! Where else across our church do you know such an opportunity to invite young adults more deeply into faith or just to experience a faith community? LCMNU is students' access to a "church on campus" where they create community, offer and experience care, and learn and re-learn what they believe, what they desire to practice, and how they seek to live their lives. Your prayers, financial gifts, and so many in-kind gifts are what make possible LCMNU's ability to support young adults and nurture their vocation at a time in their lives when they most need our presence and direction, affirmation of who they are and who they are called to be, and encouragement to use their gifts for the sake of and in service to the world. May this ministry and these young adults give you hope!

Why Lutheran Campus Ministry Matters

LCMNU Senior

My time at LCMNU has included some of my fondest memories at Northwestern. The welcoming culture helped make LCMNU feel like a home away from home. In my time here, I have been challenged to be the best Lutheran that I can be. Whether being part of the Leadership Board or solidifying the foundation of my faith through in depth talks with my peers, LCMNU has opened opportunities for me to mature. Before college, I rarely attended church and did not understand my vocation as a Christian. Through learning about myself spiritually and emotionally here, the desire to live out God's love in the world arose in me, and I was inspired to become baptized in the fall of 2017. I have grown in more ways here than I could have imagined. I thank you for the memories made at LCMNU.

LCMNU Freshman

LCMNU welcomed me as soon as I arrived on campus, and it was so amazing to find such a strong and caring faith community. I've found great opportunities for fellowship and service with other LCMNU students, and I always feel so supported when I am with them. I am so grateful to those who make the LCMNU community possible!

Recent LCMNU Graduate

LCMNU was not only important to me during my time at Northwestern but also prepared me for the world after college. I am now viewing Christianity from a different perspective, one in which personal choice to follow is necessary, and doctrinal differences are not as strongly felt due to the minority nature of Christianity. The theology I learned at LCMNU prepared me for conversations with people who have no experience of Christianity to those whose faith is so strong that they risk incarceration to pursue it. In my current setting, I have relied upon the in-depth questions we asked and sought answers to at LCMNU. Teaching others about my faith and how I live my life framed what is important and transformational about Christianity for me.
